About the Faculty

Postgraduate teaching and research in Ayurveda was initiated with the inception of Postgraduate Institute of Indian Medicine in the year 1963 at Banaras Hindu University, the largest residential University in Asia and spread over an area of 16.5 sq. km. The Banaras Hindu University, established in 1916 by Mahamana Pt. Madan Mohan Malaviya Ji, is one of the prestigious Central Universities of the country. This university is an autonomous institution and repute having the Hon'ble President of India as its visitor. Being a living embodiment of such visionaries as Pt. Madan Mohan Malaviya, Dr. Annie Besant and Dr. Radha Krishnan, its national Institution epitomizes a synthesis of ancient wisdom and modern scientific temper. The University has 127 teaching departments, many of them recognized as centers of excellence, 14 faculties and 3 institutes - Institute of Medical Sciences, , Institute of Agricultural Sciences and Institute of Environment & Sustainable Development and Indian Institute of Technology BHU with the unique distinction of having them in a walled campus.

The Institute of Medical Sciences is the first of its kind in the country, comprising of Faculty of Ayurveda, Faculty of Dental Sciences and Faculty of Medicine under one umbrella real synthesis of ancient wisdom and modern scientific temper in the field of medical sciences.

The synthesis of postgraduate Institute of Indian Medicine and College of Medical Sciences in the year 1970 emerged into the present shape of Institute. The Institute has facility for undergraduate, postgraduate and super-specialty courses under Faculty of Medicine, Undergraduate and Postgraduate degree / diploma courses under Faculty of Ayurveda and Undergraduate, Postgraduate degree/diploma courses under Faculty of Dental sciences. In addition, numbers of scholars are being enrolled for Ph.D. degree in all the departments through Common Research Entrance Test (CRET). The Faculty started B. Pharm (Ay), BNYS from the session 2011-12 and M. Pharm (Ay.) courses from the session 2011-12 at Rajiv Gandhi South Campus, BHU, situated at Barkachha in Mirzapur district. Residential Accommodation for all the students is available in close proximity of the Institute and Hospital premises.

The Faculty of Ayurveda also runs two years PG diploma courses in: Agni Karma avam Jalaukavacharan, Sangyahan, Panchakarma Therapy, Maternal Health Care, Neonatal and Child care, Kshar Karma, Vikiran and Chhaya, Ayurvedic Pharmaceutics as well as one year certificate course in Prasava Vigyan and Ayurvedic Pain Management .

The Institute has a well equipped library containing nearly 1, 00,000 volumes of reading materials i.e. in the form of books, journals, technical reports, manuscripts etc. and subscribes more than 200 national and international journals. It also has photo copying & internet facility and computer based MEDLARS data base on CD-ROM from 1996.

There is a separate wing of Ayurvedic hospital with 180 indoor beds and outdoor facilities for Postgraduate teaching and research activities apart from another wing of teaching hospital with nearly 900 beds strength with all kind of sophisticated and diagnostic equipments. The Faculty departments have all such facilities to impart both basic and advanced knowledge of Ayurveda along with integrated approach in the field of medical sciences. It also provides ample opportunities for fruitful interaction to the Postgraduates and teaching staff of various disciplines.

The Faculty has earned a distinction of having contributed immensely both in quality and quantity of meaningful teaching materials and in research. Many among the faculty members are the ones recognized and awarded at national and international level for their contributions. This has given a global recognition to the faculty in the field of Ayurveda at Postgraduate level. The excellent scientific contributions from the faculty members had prompted World Health Organization (WHO) to recognize the Faculty as a collaborative Research Centre for training and research in Traditional Medicine. The holistic model of Medical Education conceived and enriched by its illustrious founder, offer refreshing new perspectives to young minds and facilitates the accomplishment of their creative talent by getting admission for the Postgraduate degree i.e. Ayurveda Vachaspati [MD(Ay.)] and Ayurveda Dhanvantari [MS(Ay.)] in 17 disciplines of Ayurveda through nationwide competitive test.

The Mission and Goals: The Faculty of Ayurveda, Institute of Medical Sciences is the steward of Ayurveda for the country. Its mission is Ayurveda (the knowledge of life) and its synthesis with modern Medical Sciences and the application of that knowledge to extend healthy life and reduce the burdens of illness and disability. The goals of this institution are a)to develop a pattern in Ayurvedic education and research with assimilation of relevant developments in medical sciences for the purpose of education, research and health care and b)to attain self-sufficiency in Postgraduate education to meet the need of country for highly qualified teachers and researchers
