Special Teacher Orientation Program (13th to 14th February, 2020)

School of Education was sanctioned in 2016 in the 7th PAB to Banaras Hindu University since then twenty five programs have been conducted for educators in different areas by School of Education, Faculty of Education, Banaras Hindu University.

Special teachers are working towards special needs of children. Every special teacher specializes in one disability area. There is a need that in inclusive setting every teacher should have knowledge of each and every type of disability to handle the diverse classroom. RPWD Act 2018 includes twenty one disabilities, considering this an awareness/orientation program is required. Two days workshop for special teachers will be held in the Faculty of Education on 13th to 14th February, 2020. The areas which will be covered during workshop will be related with Identification and educational needs of:

- Sensory disabilities
- Neurological disabilities
- Learning disabilities
- Other disabilities mentioned in RPWD Act.

Interested Special teachers of primary and secondary level are requested to fill the attached Registration form till 8.2.2020 and send it to soe.bhu@gmail.com the selected participants will be informed on 10.02.2020. Any change in schedule will be uploaded on website.
Special Teacher Orientation Program
Registration Form
(13th to 14th February, 2020)

Name ...........................................................................................................................................

Designation ...............................................................................................................................

Qualification ............................................................................................................................

Department ..............................................................................................................................

Affiliation ................................................................................................................................

Nature of Affiliation ..................................................................................................................

District ......................................................................................................................................

State.........................................................................................................................................

Pin Code ..................................................................................................................................

Mobile .......................................................................................................................................

Date of Birth .............................................................................................................................

Nature of Employment .............................................................................................................

Gender: ......................................................................................................................................

Category: ...................................................................................................................................

E-Mail .........................................................................................................................................

Place .........................................................................................................................................

Date ...........................................................................................................................................

Signature & Designation